On the ball with the Manager

Welcome to today's visitors Arsenal as we play our second League game here at Burnden in five days.

On Tuesday we earned a point against League champions Liverpool who were smarting a little after being knocked out of the European Cup the previous week.

I made a number of changes to our side after our 4-0 defeat at Derby and I must pay tribute to the way the players battled for a 1-1 draw against the Anfield men.

I thought at one stage we were going to pinch it after Neil Whatmore put us ahead and it wasn't until ten minutes from the end that Kenny Dalglish scored the equaliser with a header from a free kick.

Our side was picked particularly to play against Liverpool and I thought young Chris Thompson, playing his first full League game, did very well.

He was there to pick up Terry McDermott who specialises in making very dangerous late runs, and Chris held him well.

He was also a little unlucky not to score a goal as was Peter Nicholson whose deflected shot was cleared off the line early on.

Characterwise I felt the game against Liverpool did the players good with a cup-tie atmosphere prevailing.

But just as I picked that side to do a special job on Liverpool, today's line-up will be looking for something out of today's game against Arsenal.

In midweek, Roy Greaves, Neil McNab and Frank Worthington were left out.

Len Cantello was injured, but that's the way the squad system operates.

And finally, our faithful fans who attend reserve games at Burnden should note that they will now start at 2 p.m. on Saturday afternoons.

This is to conserve the use of floodlights and take more advantage of natural daylight as well as to save money.

Welcome to ARSENAL

Progress in two knockout tournaments has compensated Arsenal fans for a rather disappointing opening to their League programme. The Gunners have already scaled two hurdles in the League Cup and have moved into the second round of the European Cup Winners' Cup but an average of only around a point per game has kept them near the half-way mark in the First Division table.

At the moment, of course, time is on Arsenal's side and there is every prospect that they could figure among the Championship contenders as they did last season.

Discipline has been the key factor in Arsenal's Cup successes this season. In the second round of the League Cup they played it tactically right and held on for a hard-earned 1-1 draw at Leeds.

At Highbury in the replay, the Gunners swiftly took control and, once they had their nose in front, they proceeded to treat their fans to one of their most exciting performances in years. Alan Sunderland scored a hat-trick and Arsenal ended the match with an astonishing 7-0 victory.

In the next round they faced last year's finalists Southampton who came back from behind to draw 1-1 and looked set for a replay until Liam Brady struck with a spectacular goal a few minutes from the end. Arsenal now have to visit Brighton in the next round, hoping history will repeat. For, on the opening day of this season, they won 4-0 at Brighton in a First Division game.

In the Cup-Winners' Cup they faced a determined Turkish side in Fenebalce but the Gunners managed to run up a 2-0 advantage in the first-leg at Highbury.

For the return they faced a hostile crowd and a team prepared to tear into their defence. But, with possibly their most organised display of the season, Arsenal kept their cool to draw 0-0 and go through on aggregate.

With the F.A. Cup still to come, Arsenal still could be onto a knockout treble. They are, of course, the holders of the F.A. Cup, beating Manchester United 3-2 at Wembley after a dramatic final few minutes.

The Gunners had been in full control for 85 minutes, and were coasting to victory with a 2-0 lead, when they suddenly suffered from an uncharacteristic bout of nerves.

United scored twice to level the scores, and looked poised to take the game if extra-time was played. But another of many moments of Brady magic sent Rix away on the left and his cross was pushed home by Alan Sunderland to score a last-gap winner.

Lapses, such as those at Wembley, are a manager's nightmare and Terry Neill's men have been giving him a few more in League games, particularly at Highbury where once they were so difficult to overcome. The Gunners won only one of their opening four home League games, against Middlesbrough (2-0).

They were held to a goalless draw by Manchester United but went down at home to Ipswich (0-2) and Wolves (2-3).

During the early weeks, Arsenal were marginally more successful away from home. They put a damper on Brighton's celebration of their first-ever match in Division One with their scorching 4-0 win at the Goldsone Ground and they took points from Leeds (1-1) and Aston Villa (0-0).

Their only away defeat during that spell was, surprisingly, at Derby where they were guilty of squandering a 2-0 interval lead and ended up 2-3 on the wrong side, a display that left that usually so talkative Irishman Terry Neill almost speechless.

The season opened on a sad note for Arsenal when it was announced that England forward Malcolm Macdonald had lost his fight for fitness and would play no more. English football lost one of its most likeable and colourful characters though Arsenal themselves have not suffered as severely as they might have done.

During Macdonald's injury-enforced absence last season, Arsenal moved Alan Sunderland up into attack and he struck up a prolific scoring partnership with Frank Stapleton. This duo scored 49 goals between them. And they've been at it again this term with a combined total of 15 so far.

Backroom boys tops!

ASK any football manager worth his salt and he will tell you that one of the most important members of his backroom staff is the club physiotherapist.

The physio - the man most people see merely as the track-suited trainer who darts onto the field every time a player so much as stumbles over - is a vital cog in the machine that is the modern professional football club. An experienced physio can tell almost at a glance whether a player has suffered a serious or minor injury, a bruise or break. He is first to see the injury and more often than not will be the man responsible for seeing the player to full recovery.

In Jim Headrige, Bolton Wanderers have one of the top men in his field. Knowledgeable, dedicated and enthusiastic, Jim is a valuable asset to the backroom staff at Burnden Park.

And now he is passing on his knowledge to anyone willing to listen. He has started an eight-week course on the diagnosis and treatment of soccer injuries and the response has been absolutely overwhelming.

More than 60 people turned up to enrol for the course a fortnight ago here at Burnden - far more than Jim had anticipated when he first had the idea.

Organising courses of this type is nothing new to Jim though. When he was in the North East as trainer and physio at Middlesbrough he organised them there. He was the FA regional lecturer on the treatment of injuries - a role he now fulfills in the North West.

"I've been organising these courses for 10 or 12 years but never has there been as much interest. And it is the reaction from the public that is so important. It doesn't matter how good the course is, if you only get a handful of people turning up it is a waste of time." says Jim.

Among the people to show an interest from the Bolton area are physiotherapists from local hospitals, schoolteachers, people involved in local and junior soccer and the players themselves.

The eight-week course of lectures include a great deal of practical work under Jim's supervision and take the students through from the diagnosis of injuries, to the treatment and then finally to the safest and quickest methods to achieve full recovery.

The use of equipment, bandaging and exercise are covered in full and when the course is finished, those interested will be able to sit a voluntary written examination which will qualify them for the FA Intermediate certificate on the treatment of injuries.

With so much local league and junior league football played these days it is vital for the players themselves to have someone connected with their clubs who knows what he is doing when treating injuries which occur on the field.

Jim Headrige is the man entrusted with the care of the professionals at Bolton Wanderers and he is willing to pass on his knowledge for the benefit of anyone in an effort to improve the standards of treatment in our local football and in our schools and colleges.

Our thanks Jim. Keep up the good work!

PAT JENNINGS (Goalkeeper) Pat won his 80th Northern Ireland cap against Denmark in June and is now the most-capped player in his country's history. Another proud appearance record belonging to Pat is his club record of 472 League games for Tottenham. It was with Spurs that he rose to fame. He joined them from Watford for £27,500 in 1964 and won League and Cup winners' medals while at White Hart Lane. In 1973 he was chosen Footballer of the Year. He left Tottenham during the summer of 1977 to join Arsenal in a £40,000 deal.

PAT RICE (Defender) Pat is another member of the N. Ireland team and he now has 48 caps. Pat is a one-club man who graduated to the Gunners' League team in 1967/68 though it took him three more years to win a regular place.

DAVID O'LEARY (Defender) David is another Irish international, though he plays for the Republic of Ireland. He won his 12th cap against Wales last month. David served his apprenticeship at Highbury and he quickly earned a regular place in their back four after making his bow four seasons back.

WILLIE YOUNG (Defender) Willie arrived from Tottenham in an £80,000 deal three seasons ago and, with his height, has proved one of the best stoppers in the business. He began his career with Aberdeen and gained Scottish under-23 honours while with them. Tottenham paid £100,000 for him in 1975.

SAMMY NELSON (Defender) Sammy is yet another Irish international in the Gunners' defence, gaining his 41st cap for N. Ireland against Denmark. Sammy won his place on the international side a long while before he became a regular First Division player for his club but he has been holding the left-back position for Arsenal for the past five seasons.

STEVE WALFORD (Defender/Midfield) Steve began his career with neighbouring Spurs but got only two opportunities in their League eleven. Arsenal signed him in 1977 and are fully capitalising on his versatility. He played central defender, left-back and in midfield last season. Steve was called on as substitute in the dying moments of last season's F.A. Cup final.

BRIAN TALBOT (Midfield) Arsenal invested a club record £450,000 in Brian's transfer from Ipswich last season. Though an Ipswich player all his life — he made his League debut in 1973/74 — he had always dreamed of playing for the Gunners. Now he's hoping to add to the five England caps he won while at Portman Road.

JOHN HOLLINS (Midfield) John joined Arsenal this summer from London rivals Q.P.R. He made his name with Chelsea, gaining England youth honours and 12 England under-23 caps while at Stamford Bridge. He also played for the full England team. Rangers signed him for £85,000 in 1975 and, though normally a midfield player, he has from time to time played as a central defender.

LIAM BRADY (Midfield) Liam last season received the highest honour any player can achieve — he was voted by his fellow professionals as Footballer of the Year. A Republic of Ireland international on 22 occasions, Liam fully deserved his award for he is now acknowledged as one of the most talented midfield players in Europe. He is also a goal scorer of note, hitting 17 for the Gunners last season.

GRAHAM RIX (Midfield) Graham is one of the latest graduates from the Arsenal youth team to make his mark in the First Division. He was introduced for a few games towards the end of 1976/77 and has been holding one of the midfield places for over a year now. Graham is an England under-21 international.

STEVE GATTING (Midfield) Steve made his League debut against Southampton at Highbury in October 1978 and has been called up on several subsequent occasions. Steve has been an Arsenal professional since March, 1977.

ALAN SUNDERLAND (Forward) Arsenal paid Wolves £240,000 for Alan two seasons ago and, in the absence of Malcolm Macdonald, he was used to good effect in attack last season, scoring 18 goals. During his Wolves' days, Alan was capped at England under-23 level.

FRANK STAPLETON (Forward) Frank's scoring form in 1976/77, when he hit 17 goals, earned him his call up for international duty and he now has 12 Republic of Ireland caps. A former Arsenal apprentice, he earned his first-team chance in 1974/75. He scored 19 times in 1977/78 and last season he was Arsenal's leading scorer with 28 goals.

Executive Club manager Nat Lofthouse has enlisted two of his former England colleagues, Billy Wright and Stan Mortensen, as after-dinner speakers while a host of sporting celebrities will be around the table.

Tony Book, John Higgins, Brian Edwards, Paddy Crerand and the immortal Dixie Dean have promised to attend along with current Wanderers and Manchester United players and officials

It all starts at 7.30 p.m. with dinner at 8p.m. and tickets are now available at £10 each from the Executive Club.

Dressing in Style

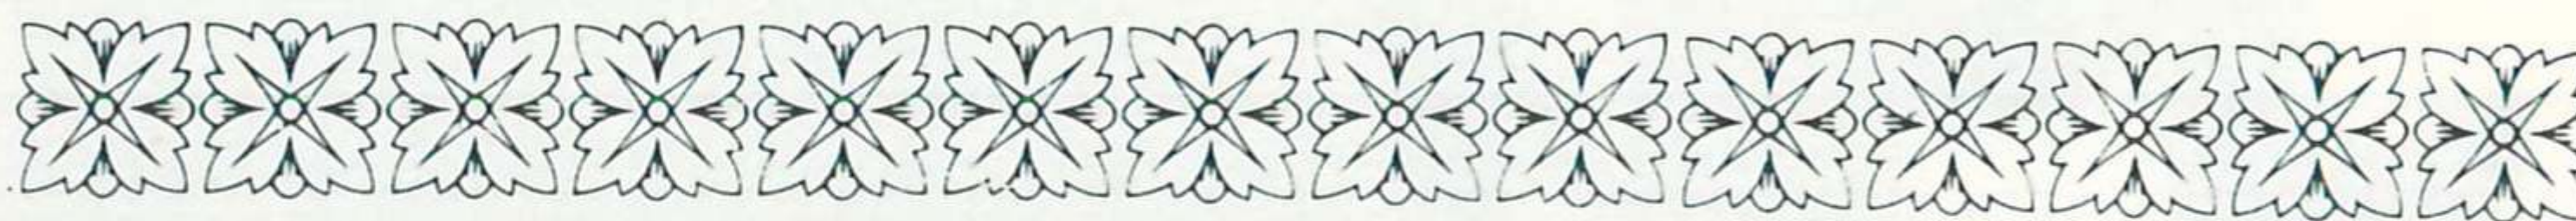

Modern day footballers are recognised as "snappy" dressers and the Wanderers players are no exception.

Be it the ultra-trendy style of Frank Worthington, the up-to-the-minute casual attire of Willie Morgan and Peter Reid or the more formal yet fashionable suits worn by Alan Gowling and Neil Whatmore the Super Whites are always in the forefront of the latest fashion trends.

And on Wednesday, October 17, several of the players will be modelling the Magna Carta collection at a fashion show in the Executive Club.

Tickets are on sale at the Development Office (70p) and a later bar will be operating.

If that's not enough to tempt the fellows along a number of attractive young ladies will be showing fashions by Paul Michelle in a complete "His n' Hers" show starting at 8p.m.

STARS FLY OUT FOR HOME GAME

A party of some 40 professional footballers — almost all of them from the English First Division — will fly out from London and Manchester next week to play the European Championship tie that should confirm England's qualification for the quarter-finals.

For half of them, the journey across to Belfast will be in the cause of fulfilling a home fixture. Pat Jennings, Pat Rice and Sammy Nelson, who should be in the Arsenal side at Burnden Park today, will be among the 11 Football League players who will be wearing Irish shirts.

The remaining First Division players — plus, almost certainly, the addition of Kevin Keegan (Hamburg) and Dave Watson (Werder Bremen) — will be an England side that is still unbeaten in 11 competitive matches under Ron Greenwood.

Cynics might suggest that it would be better to play the game at Wembley — or even at a provincial ground like Burnden Park — which would be easier for the players and attract a considerably larger attendance.

But, of course, to the unhappy folk who live in Ulster, the visit of the England team is something pleasant to contemplate for weeks before the event. And, until recently, there had never been any hint of political violence at a football match in N. Ireland.

There is more concern this time, however, following the ugly scenes that occurred during the UEFA Cup clash between Dundalk (Republic of Ireland) and Linfield (N. Ireland) in August. The return had to be played in Holland.

It has been suggested in Belfast that if, as expected, the result of the N. Ireland v Eire match — due to be played in Belfast next month — will have no bearing upon the final placings it may not now take place.

So England would be doing the politicians of both Irish states a service by beating the Irish on Wednesday. In that event, England would have to lose both their remaining home games, and Eire would have to win all their remaining fixtures (including the England game at Wembley) by a minimum goals margin of 10–0 to stop England's passage to Rome for the quarter-finals.

Back on the domestic front, Crystal Palace created something of a sensation by going to the top of the First Division for the first time in their 74-year history and, with eight games played, they were the only remaining unbeaten team in the First Division.

"It's nice to be at the top even if it lasts for only a week," smiled manager Terry Venables. He was, as usual, being over-modest for there is no fluke about Palace's present lofty position. It has been planned for five years and they now have a young team of great talent, bolstered by the experience of men like former England skipper Gerry Francis and Mike Flanagan.

Both have been picked for the England "B" team to meet New Zealand at Orient's ground next week. Vince Hilaire, the coloured forward with the delicate flicks and touches, has been named as one of the substitutes.

For Francis, this "B" international is what he hopes will be the first stage of his return to full international duty. He has been suffering from no ill effects from the injury that, for nearly three years, has several times threatened his career. He has been back to his old England form for Palace and, if his luck holds, it should not be long before he is back in the full England team.

Palace did not go to the top of the First Division using negative tactics. The 4–1 victory over Ipswich, which put them on top, took their goals tally to 14, a total bettered then only by Norwich (15) and Southampton (15) in First Division games.

Another pointer to Palace's attitude is that every member of the team — apart from the goalkeeper and two central defenders — had scored at least one goal in that opening flush of success.

Phil Boyer became the first Southampton player to hit a hat-trick in a First Division game for over ten years when he scored three of the four goals against Derby. The last Saint to do it was Ron Davies, who scored all four in a remarkable 4–1 win over Manchester United at Old Trafford in August 1969.

How to get there

Here is your RAC route to the Wanderers' game at Nottingham Forest.

Leave Bolton on A666/M61 merging with M62/M63 (follow 'Stockport' signs) south to Cheadle junction (present terminal M63) with A560. (19 miles)

A560 to Stockport junction A6. (21 miles)

A6 via Whaley Bridge to Chapel-en-le-Frith junction with A623. (37 miles)

A623 via Peak Forest to Baslow junction with A619. (52 miles)

A619 to Chesterfield junction with A617. (63 miles)

A617 to M1 intersection at Heath. (68 miles)

M1 south for 16 miles to intersection 26/26A junction with A610. (84 miles)

A610 to Nottingham. (90 miles)

Nottingham Forest's ground is just over 1½ miles south of the city centre near the junction of the A60 and A52. Approaching Nottingham from M1 turn right onto the Ring Road (Western Boulevard) continuing with the Ring Road to the Clifton Flyover.

Turn right off the Flyover as signposted M1, turning right again at the roundabout with the signs for Grantham down Clifton Lane and Wilford Lane to Loughborough Road where you turn left for Trent Bridge.

Forest's ground is just off Radcliffe Road before you cross Trent Bridge.

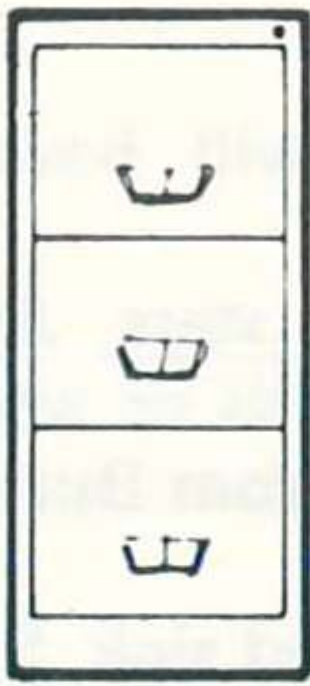

Wanderers Travel Club

Travel facilities to away games are again available through the official Wanderers Travel Club to members who produce their membership card when booking and carry their card on all coach or rail trips.

Membership of the Travel Club for the coming season is now being accepted by the promotions office and costs just 50p for the year (free for agents).

A passport size photograph is all that is required along with the membership fee. Support your team and follow the Wanderers with the official Travel Club, starting with the trip to the City Ground, home of European champions Nottingham Forest, on Saturday October 20.

But remember — membership does NOT guarantee a seat. You must book early in the week to be sure of travelling.

Jim can fix it!

Friends and fans of JIM HEADRIGE, Wanderers' physiotherapist, will have no problem in wondering where to book in for their late holiday.

When he's not tending the pulls and strains of your favourite soccer stars, Jim is Mine Host of nine neat holiday flats which are available for long weekends or weekly lets at Blackpool — still the North's most popular spot, and just an hour from Burnden Park.

The flats are centrally heated, and each has its own TV, fridge, cooker and sink. Some have separate kitchens, and extra bedrooms are available for family parties. Bed linen is provided.

Fancy a break? Ring 0253 727066 and see if Jim can fix it, at Osborne Holiday Flats, 24 Withnell Road, South Shore, Blackpool — just a minute from the bracing South Shore Pleasure Beach and South Pier.

On the air...

Patients in Bolton's hospitals can now spend three hours at Burnden Park every match day thanks to a new radio link direct from the ground provided by the Hospital Saturday Football Fund.

The new equipment allows the hospital wards to tune into the 90 minute pre-match programme of news, information and record dedications as well as a commentary on the whole game.

And already the patients have welcomed the improved service.

Record requests are flooding into the ground both from patients themselves and from friends and relatives who wish to pass on get well messages over the air.

If there's a birthday, wedding anniversary, engagement, get well message or dedication of any kind you would like to make, simply write to the programme presenters Alan or Kevan at Burnden Park and they will do the rest.
